ALEA joins National Safe Boating Week and highlights recent legislative changes

This week, the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency's (ALEA) Marine Patrol Division joined organizations across the nation to participate and observe National Safe Boating Week, a global initiative which runs from May 18 to May 24.

Boating is a cherished pastime in Alabama, especially during the Memorial Day weekend, which starts at the end of National Safe Boating Week and marks the unofficial start of the summer boating season. With this in mind, the Agency held a press event at the Alabama State Capitol on Tuesday, May 21, to emphasize the importance of safety on the water, along with announcing recent legislation that was signed into law and will greatly enhance safety on the water across the state.

One monumental legislative update was the emergency cut-off switch or "kill switch," which brought state law into compliance with federal law. The law requires the emergency cut-off switch link to be in use on covered vessels while the vessel is above displacement speed. Covered vessels are any motorized vessel less than 26-feet in length with a propulsion system capable of producing 115 pounds of static thrust, which is essentially a motor of 3 horsepower and greater.

It is required of all such vessels constructed on or after January 1, 2020, or such vessels that were already equipped with an emergency cut-off switch prior to or at the time of passage of the Federal law. This new requirement is aimed at protecting occupants of the boat and other vessels from runaway boats by ensuring the engine immediately stops when the operator leaves the helm or is displaced for any reason.

"The safety of all individuals enjoying Alabama's waterways is paramount," stated Matt Brooks, Chief of ALEA's Marine Patrol Division. "Boats can make sudden turns with enough force to throw an operator from the helm or completely out of the boat, causing the vessel to become a deadly hazard to the ejected operator and creates a danger to others in the area. By requiring operators to utilize these switches, ALEA aims to prevent these types of accidents, thus reducing the potential for injuries and fatalities."

Another legislative act addressed the regulation of wakeboarding and wakesurfing on specific impounded waters of the state. This measure seeks to mitigate potential hazards associated with these activities while preserving the natural beauty and recreational value of Alabama's bodies of water.

This act, which went into effect on Sept. 1, 2023, regulates wakeboarding and wakesurfing on the waters of the state impounded by Lewis Smith Dam (Lewis Smith Lake), R.L. Harris Dam (Lake Wedowee or the R.L. Harris Reservoir) and on Shoal Creek in Lauderdale County north of Highway 72. According to the new law, a person may not engage in wakeboarding or wakesurfing between sunset and sunrise, on portions of water where the width is less than 400 feet, within 200 feet from any shoreline, dock, pier, boathouse or other structure located on the impounded waters, and while not wearing a personal flotation device approved by the United States Coast Guard.

Law enforcement will issue a warning for a first offense until September 1, 2024. A second or subsequent offense within the same calendar year will be treated like a first offense with regard to penalties. Penalties for a first offense are a fine of no less than $100.

Lake Martin and Weiss Lake were recently added to this law. The law will take effect on those bodies of

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Editor

We are writing this on 'graduation day' for many of our local seniors. As these young people venture into the next phase of their lives, we wanted to take a moment to congratulate them on the things they have already accomplished and wish them well in the future. Today's paper includes photos of the local seniors, we encourage our readers to take time to look over these photos and offer prayers for these young men and women. They will have many decisions to make as they step into their new paths, wherever those may lead, and it is our prayer they will allow the Lord to guide them.

The Elba Board of Education was set to meet Tuesday evening of this week for its regular monthly meeting. We noticed the agenda included a line item of '2024-2025 Plan' and we too wonder what that plan may be for the schools. It has been made clear recently that the school board majority wants to go a different direction with the superintendent position, but they have yet – unless something was revealed at this week's meeting – to make a move indicating they have a plan ready to search for the school system's next leader. It has been weeks since the board members voted to notify the current superintendent of their intent to not renew his contract, but as far as we know, there has been no posting that the board is seeking a new superintendent to accept any applications. Another local school system was notified last week that it's superintendent is retiring, and the very next day there was a posting announcing the search for a new super there. The way we see it, the pickings for a highly qualified candidate for the Elba job were already going to be slim due to the lower salary Elba pays compared to other systems...now, with another local system also searching for a new superintendent, those pickings could be even slimmer. Only time will tell, but we worry the board may have gotten the cart ahead of the horse here if they didn't have some sort of plan in place when they started this process. Let's just hope it doesn't harm the schools in some way because there were too many good things that happened this school year where the students were concerned, and we would hate for that to be the case.

We now are not rehashing nor arguing what the board voted to do regarding the current superintendent. What is done is done. We are, however, voicing a concern for the 'what's next' because from where we sit it just seems there has been a lack of movement. We can only hope we are wrong, and there is a solid plan in motion even though that has not appeared to be the case thus far.

On a more positive note, the blessing of rain last week has really brought out the green in the grass and leaves this week! Now, those having to do the grass-cutting may not feel as positive about the growth the rains may have created, but it sure is refreshing to walk outside this week and see the vibrant signs from the recent rainwaters. While there were some heavy downpours at times with last week's rains, the local area was spared from any damaging storms...that is always a positive in our book and another reason to thank the Man upstairs.

Monday will be Memorial Day. While you are celebrating the 'day off' with your family and friends, please remember to take some time also to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice to allow you the freedom to have said celebrations. Freedom is not free, and we owe a tremendous amount of gratitude to those who gave it all for us. Those who made the ultimate sacrifice and those who have served and are serving are the true heroes of this land. Monday remembers those who gave their lives. We can never say 'thank you' enough.

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Cuzin Lou Lou feels as though she has 'arrived' following a quick shopping trip with Sister last Saturday!

While shopping Lou Lou came across a package of corn on the cob holders - you know those little picks with the image of a corn cob on the end of it. Well... Lou Lou couldn't resist, and she picked up a pack to purchase.

After the two paid for their items and headed to the vehicle, a very excited Lou Lou asked Sister if she noticed the corn on the cob holders she had bought. Sister said she had noticed them.

"I feel like we have arrived!" Lou Lou said with a giggle.

"What in the name of Yonder are you talking about?" Sister asked.

To which, Lou Lou explained that when they were little girls she was always fascinated when visiting others that had those corn on the cob holders. She said she felt like those who had those things were rich or something because at the Yonder Gang's house the only way corn was held to eat was by the hands!

"Now, we have our own!" Lou Lou said.

Sister, in Sister-fashion, rolled her eyes at that explanation.

"You've got to be kidding me," was her response.

"Absolutely not!" Lou Lou said. "I can't wait to have corn on the cob so we can use our new holders!"

After laughing at Lou Lou and her new purchase, Sister then completely burst Lou Lou's bubble.

"You know we used to have a set of those, right?" Sister questioned. "Well, obviously not!" Lou Lou said. "Otherwise, I would have 'arrived' long before today!"

Oh well...there are new corn on the cob holders at the Yonder Gang's house now, and the next time corn is for supper, you can rest assured Lou Lou will be using her new holders!

Lou Lou did benefit additionally from the little shopping trip in that Sister purchased a new "duck" for the Jeep. This duck was a patriotic-themed one decked out in red, white and blue.

Lou Lou joked with Sister after she gave her the duck that she might consider naming the Jeep "Captain America" with this new duck riding along. Sister did not like that name idea at all. So... for now, we are still Lou's Oscar Mike.

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

What is a Flag Detail, and What Does One Look Like?

The United States flag plays a prominent role in military funerals. As such, it's important to have officers on hand who can not only ensure that the fallen service member is properly honored but also see to it that the flag is handled with care and respect.

These officers are collectively known as the flag detail and may include a number of officers tasked with different activities. A couple of members of the detail will be responsible for handling the flag and folding it at the proper time. (The folds of the flag are rich in symbolic significance, and it's vitally important that this action is taken on with the requisite attention.) These flag folders will then furnish the flag to the deceased's next of kin.

There are other important roles included in the flag detail, including pallbearers - whose job is to make sure that the fallen service member's casket is transported respectfully and carefully.

In other words, the flag detail serves in both a symbolic role and a functional one. The members of the flag detail bring a lot of ceremonial significance to the military funeral service, but their actions are also necessary for keeping the events of the service moving forward.

As you consider the funeral arrangements for your deceased service member, you may have questions about how to arrange the proper flag detail, and what tasks you can expect them to perform during the service. Reaching out to the local VFW or American Legion can provide you with the answers you need. Alternatively, you can always ask your funeral home director for their insights on the matter.

I was a might proud granddaddy one morning last week when I got to watch as our grandson Lawson was honored at awards day at school for having the top grade point average in Civics, Geography, Mathematics and English, and also was named as one of the two 'citizenship' award winners in his grade. Lawson, his Mom and his Nanny spent a lot of long hours during the school year helping him study and learn, and the hard work paid dividends at the awards ceremony. I am proud of the honors, but even more proud of the young man he is becoming and for making me a mighty proud granddaddy.

For what it is worth....

 Zion Chapel and Brantley both fell a few wins shy of bringing home state high school softball titles last week, but both teams made their fans proud and wrote new chapters in their record books. The Lady Rebels from Zion Chapel were ranked all season in Class 2A and carried a #3 ranking into the state tournament, but scored only two runs in their two losses after scoring in double-digits twenty times during the regular season. The girls from Jack closed the season with an amazing 38-5 record, set countless records and put Zion Chapel on the map in high school girls' softball! Brantley was looking for its seventh state championship and did nothing to make anyone think otherwise after a 10-0 win in its state tournament opener, but the Lady Bulldogs saw their bats go silent in the next two games and scored a total of only three runs and managed only six hits to be eliminated. Brantley had outscored its first six post-season opponents 86-3 and was 12-0 against 1A competition after its opening win at state. Despite the disappointing finish, the youthful Lady Bulldogs gained valuable experience and I guarantee you their fans already know the starting date for the state tournament next season.

 It was a memorable state tournament for the girls from Opp and Wicksburg as both teams took home blue maps after claiming state titles. The 3A Lady Bobcats put the finishing touches on a 43-6-1 season with four straight wins, including a 4-2 victory over defending state champion Plainview in the final game, while the Lady Panthers totally dominated the 2A state tournament as they rolled to four straight wins by a combined score of 42-0 to take home the school's first state title in any sport. Houston Academy was forced to settle for third in the 4A ranks after a tough loss in the winner's bracket finals to four-time defending state champ Orange Beach, Rehobeth posted two wins before being ousted by eventual 5A state champ Jasper, and 7A Enterprise won its opener before dropping its next two games. I know I sound like a broken record at times, but it was a softball season to remember for the teams in the area and all across the wiregrass.

 In closing.... School gets out this week for summer vacation all across the state. That is for all the students except those that will compete next season in sports. Here at Elba, and all across the area, the coaches and student-athletes will get to take a few days off before they head back to begin summer conditioning and workouts. I know dozens of student-athletes at Elba High that played all three sports during the recently completed school year, practically without a break, and now they will catch their breath for a week or so before having to head back to school during the summer to keep on working. It is a true sacrifice to be a student-athlete at the high school level, and everyone should let them know how proud we are of them whenever we see them. Remember, there are no NIL funds that got to high school athletes in Alabama and the student-athletes do it because they love the game.

Wilson is state champion

The Elba Tigers saw their three-year reign at the AHSAA Class 1A-2A State Golf Tournament come to an end last week with a third place finish at the Robert Trent Jones course, in Florence, but did come home with plenty to be proud of as sophomore sensation Jay Wilson claimed top individual honors at the annual event to bring home 'State Champion' honors.

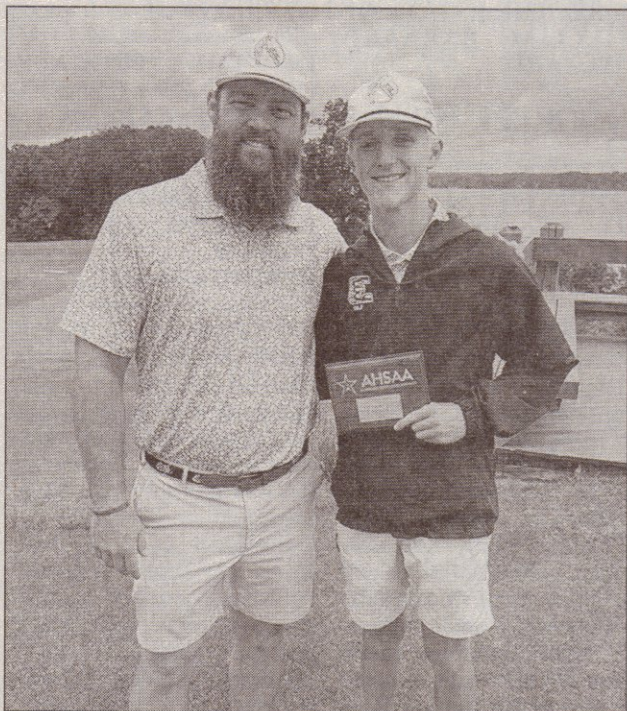

Wilson, who placed second a year ago as a freshman, fired a three-under par 69 on Monday and then closed the rain-shortened tournament with a two-under par 34 on Tuesday to finish with a 27-hole total of 103 and a five-stroke win over runner-up Luke Davis, of Athens Bible.

"I played pretty good," admitted Wilson in a published interview after being presented the state champion plaque. "I just tried to keep the ball in the fairway and limit mistakes. It feels good to win it as a sophomore with two years left in high school. I know I can go out there and compete with the best in the state in my age division and just need to keep it going. I wish the team could have won the state title, but it is always fun to go out there and play golf."

"I try to keep my head level and not get too upset if something bad happens," added Wilson, who shared time on the course during the regular season with many afternoons on the baseball field as a member of the Elba Tiger baseball team that advanced to the second round of the playoffs. "I just play my game and keep pushing until the end of the round. This year that plan worked for me, and it is great to ring home individual honors."

Elba Tiger golf coach Mark Wicker beamed with pride when talking about his team's number one player and state champion and stated, "He is very deserving of the honor and played really well all season, and especially at the state tournament. Jay works hard every time he steps onto the course and his plan at state was to stay under control and to put himself in position to make pars and birdies. He only hit a hand full of drivers either day in an attempt to set himself up for the next shot, and he stuck with the plan and made it work. We are all proud of everything Jay has accomplished as a sophomore, and we are also proud of the entire team. We had the only 1A team at the state tournament and were tied for the lead after the opening day, and even though we weren't able to close the deal and bring home another title, all the golfers played hard and never backed down from the challenge on the second day in the nine-hole shootout. At the end of the day we had the best golfer in the state in Class 1A-2A, and placed third as the only 1A team in the field."

In Monday's opening round 69, Wilson birdied his second hole with a two on a par three, and added a birdie at the par four seventh to fire a two-under 34 on the front nine. He made his only bogey of the day at the tenth, but bounced back with a birdie at the par five eleventh and par four thirteenth to close out the here-under par opening round with a three shot lead.

Wilson came out Tuesday morning and let his fellow competitors know he was ahead to stay as he birdied the par four first hole, and then after a minor hiccup with a bogey on the fifth, came back strong and birdied the par five sixth and par four seventh to take command as he coasted in with the two-under 34 to claim the state individual championship.

North Sand Mountain won its second straight 1A-2A state title with a team score of 314, followed in second by Pike Liberal Arts with a 323, Elba with a 324 and Hackleburg with a 372. Other individual scores for the Tigers included Trace Grantham with a 76-41, Alex Wisecup with an 84-43, Kade Harrison with an 85-43, and Powell Bane with a 108-50.

"I hope to play in several big junior tournaments over the summer to gain more experience and work on my complete game," said Wilson. "The Future Masters in Dothan is definitely on the calendar, and by staying busy and competing against the best golfers around it can only help out next season and as I grow as a golfer."

The Elba High School Boys Golf team finished third last week at the AHSAA State Championships for Class 1A/2A boys golf. The team was tied for first place with North Sand Mountain after the first day of play. Day two of the championships was shortened due to weather. While the Tigers fell to third place as a team on Day 2, it was still a great season for the golf team. This marked the fourth straight year the Elba High Golf team has gone to state. Zion Chapel ends record-breaking season

The Zion Chapel Lady Rebels saw their quest for a state high school softball title come to a disappointing end last week at the Class 2A State Tournament as they posted one win in three opening day games to place fifth and closed the season with a 38-5 record.

The Lady Rebels opened the tournament against Sumiton Christian and turned back a furious seventh inning rally to post an exciting 9-7 win. Zion Chapel scored two runs in the sixth and five runs in the seventh to break a 2-2 tie and open up a 9-2 advantage. However, the Lady Rebels saw their opponents rally with five runs in their half of the final inning and had to hold on to claim the win. Kennedy Hussey had 3 hits, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi to lead the Lady Rebels at the plate, while Riley Bannin added 3 hits and 1 rbi; Madison Meeks and Shea Wambles both added 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi; Aubrey Bassett added 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; and, Kaylee Hodge added 2 hits and scored 1 run. Bannin pitched six and two-third innings and allowed five earned runs on six hits and six walks, while striking out 11, and Sydney Boothe got the save as she pitched one-third inning and recorded one strikeout.

The Lady Rebels battled to a 1-1 tie heading into the bottom of the fifth inning, but lost control late and dropped a 5-2 decision to eventual state runner-up Thorsby. Kennedy Hussey had 3 hits and 2 rbi's to lead Zion Chapel at the plate, while Riley Bannin added 1 hit and scored 1 run, and Madison Meeks and Aubrey Bassett both added 1 hit. Sydney Boothe pitched six innings and allowed three earned runs on six hits two walks, while striking out seven.

The Lady Rebels saw a late rally fall one run short in a heartbreaking 3-2 loss to Hatton, in an elimination game. Zion Chapel scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to pull within 3-2, but went down in order in the seventh as it saw the season come to an end. Sydney Boothe had 3 hits and 1 rbi to lead the Lady Rebels at the plate, while Shea Wambles added 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; Madison Meeks added 2 hits and scored 1 run; and, Kennedy Hussey and Emily Rhodes both added 1 hit. Riley Bannin pitched seven innings and allowed three earned runs on seven hits and two walks, while striking out seven.

At 1A state tournament

Brantley bats go silent after early win

The Brantley Lady Bulldogs closed the book on another successful high school softball season last week with a fifth place finish at the Class 1A State Tournament, in Oxford.

The Lady Bulldogs opened tournament play with a solid 10-0 win over Waterloo. Brantley used a 4-run first inning to take command early and then added five runs in their final two at-bats to claim the win. Anna Little had 2 hits, scored 1 run and had

2 rbi's to lead the Lady Bulldogs at the plate, while Hope Richardson added 2 hits and 3 rbi's; Savannah Nichols added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi's; Kaitlyn Piggott added 1 hit and scored 3 runs, Alex Grimes added a triple and 2 rbi's; and, Mary Driggers added 1 hit and 2 rbi's. Anna Little pitched a six-inning shutout and allowed four hits, with three strikeouts.

The Lady Bulldogs met eventual state champion Skyline in the second round and lost control late in a 12-2 loss. Brantley trailed by only two runs after five innings, but watched as Skyline pulled away late to hand the Lady Bulldogs their first loss of the tournament. Marley Kilcrease had 2 hits to lead the Lady Bulldogs at the plate, while Alex Grimes added 1 hit and 1 rbi, and Coco Stamps and Savannah

Nichols both scored 1 run. Anna Little pitched five innings and allowed two earned runs on four hits and four walks, while Grimes pitched two innings and allowed seven earned runs on eight hits and four walks. The two pitchers combined for six strikeouts.

The Lady Bulldogs saw their season draw to an end with a hard fought 3-1 loss to Hackleburg. Brantley outthit their opponents 6-5 in the game, but allowed three unearned runs on four errors in the elimination contest. Coco Stamps had 2 hits and 1 rbi to lead the Lady Bulldogs at the plate, while Marley Kilcrease added 1 hit and scored 1 run, and Alex Grimes, Kaitlyn Piggott and Mary Driggers all added 1 hit. Anna Little pitched a complete game five hitter with six strikeouts and allowed no earned runs.

Targeting the Audience
The National Enquirer, the Weekly World News, and the Star are tabloids found at the checkout lanes in supermarkets just about everywhere. The purchase of one or more is part of the weekly shopping ritual for many people. Even those of us who don't buy the tabloids must admit to occasionally scanning the eye-catching headlines. A headline a few of us could keep from noticing was seen in one issue of the Weekly World News. It read, "Satan Escapes from Hell." Beside the headline was a picture of a cloud of smoke escaping from an exploding oil well. With a bit of imagination, one could see a grotesque face in the cloud. There is a ready audience for salacious gossip and incredible stories - a subculture easily tapped by the tabloids, who know that placing their publications by the supermarket checkout lanes will entice the buyers. That's an important principle of marketing. Paul and Barnabas knew that certain people could be counted on to be present at a specific place and time: they could be found in the synagogue on the Sabbath day. Here was an audience - a subculture - already prepared to hear the gospel because it was familiar with the Old Testament scriptures, which Jesus had come to fulfill. It was an open door that Paul and Barnabas used, with encouraging results. The sensationalism of the tabloids is not a good model for us in sharing the gospel, but the wisdom of the Apostle is. - C.R.B.

Davis awarded Cattlemen's Foundation Scholarship

Cody Davis was awarded the T. Whit and Mildred Athey Memorial Scholarship at the Alabama Cattlemen's Foundation Scholarship Banquet held Friday, May 3, in Wetumpka, Ala. Cody is the son of Larry Davis and Dr. Cheryl Bailey of Kinston. A graduate of Opp High School, Davis attends the Auburn University College of Veterinary Medicine where he is pursuing a PhD in Veterinary Medicine. He was one of 113 scholarship recipients awarded over $110,250 in scholarship by the Alabama Cattlemen's Foundation (ACF). The ACF serves to engage in educational and scientific activities to improve the beef cattle industry in Alabama and educate youth on the importance of beef cattle in Alabama. It provides the opportunity to make tax deductible donations for the educational work of the foundation and is largely funded by the sale of the "Cowboy Tag" vanity license plate.

"Through thoughtful regulation, we aim to foster a safe and enjoyable environment for enthusiasts while respecting the needs and concerns of other recreational users. This week and every week, we aim to promote public safety and save lives on the water." ALEA Secretary Hal Taylor said, "We would also like to extend our sincere gratitude to the Alabama Legislature and Governor Kay Ivey for their unwavering support and specifically to Representatives Ginny Shaver and Ed Oliver and Senator Jay Hovey, for their collaborative efforts in prioritizing public safety on Alabama's waterways during the previous legislative session. our mission of ensuring safe and enjoyable experiences for all who navigate our state's scenic waterways."

ALEA's Marine Patrol Division remains committed to promoting water safety and enforcing regulations that protect the well-being of all individuals utilizing Alabama's water resources. These legislative acts underscore ALEA's ongoing dedication to enhancing public safety and preserving the natural beauty of Alabama's waterways.

To promote water and boating safety, the Alabama Marine Patrol Division offers the following tips:

Wear a Life Jacket: Always wear a U.S. Coast Guard-approved life jacket while boating, fishing, or participating in water sports. Ensure that life jackets fit properly and are suitable for each passenger.

Avoid Alcohol: Operating a boat under the influence of alcohol or drugs is illegal and significantly increases the risk of accidents. Designate a sober driver or skipper to ensure safe navigation.

Check the Weather: Stay informed about weather conditions before heading out on the water. Postpone boating activities if inclement weather is forecasted and be prepared to seek shelter if necessary.

Follow Navigation Rules: Observe speed limits, maintain a safe distance from other vessels, and adhere to all navigational markers and buoys. Practice courteous boating etiquette and be mindful of other boaters, swimmers, and wildlife.

Equip Your Boat: Ensure that your boat is properly equipped with essential safety gear, including fire extinguishers, navigation lights, and a first aid kit. Regularly inspect and maintain your vessel to prevent mechanical failures.

Be Prepared: Familiarize yourself with local boating regulations and emergency procedures. Carry a charged cell phone or marine radio for communication in case of emergencies and inform someone ashore of your boating plans.
